Level -1

Comprehension Skills and Strategies

Students read texts at an age-appropriate level and show understanding as they:

- · Look at books independently and display reading-like behaviour
- · Make connections to own experiences when listening to or 'reading' texts
- Identify main story settings, events and principal characters
- Participate in shared reading, joining in with rhymes, refrains and repeated texts

Word Recognition

Students use a range of word recognition strategies, showing understanding as they:

- Distinguish between pictures and written text
- Recognise familiar words such as own name and environmental print

Writing conveys meaning. People write to tell about their experiences, ideas, and feelings. Everyone can express themselves in writing. Talking about our stories and pictures helps other people to understand and enjoy them.	People write to communicate. The sound of spoken language can be represented visually (letters, symbols, characters). Consistent ways of recording words or ideas enables	We write in different ways for different purposes. The structure of different types of texts includes identifiable features. Applying a range of strategies helps us to express ourselves so that others can enjoy our writing. Thinking about storybook characters and people in real life	Writing and thinking work together to enable us to express ideas and convey meanings. Asking questions of ourselves and others helps to make our writing more focused and purposeful. The way we structure and organise our writing helps others to understand and appreciate it. Phase 1	Phase 2	Phase 3	Phase 4	Phase 5
Phase 1 Visual language is all around us. The pictures, images, and symbols in our environment have meaning. We can enjoy and learn from visual language.	Phase 2 People use static and moving images to communicate ideas and information. Visual texts can immediately gain our attention. Viewing and talking about the images others have created helps us to understand and create our own presentations.	Visual texts can expand our database of sources of information. Visual texts provide alternative means to develop new levels of understanding. Selecting the most suitable forms of visual	Visual texts have the power to influence thinking and behaviour.
